

---

Appendix D: Optional software packages

---

Table D-1 illustrates the optional software packages for Meridian IVR Release 2.0/I.

Table D-1
Meridian IVR Optional Software Packages

|                                                                                                                                                |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Maintenance Package: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>— Voice Prompt Editor ( VPE)</li><li>— Local data base editor (DB Editor)</li></ul> |
| Fax Response software (This includes all the system modification files required by Fax software.)                                              |
| 3270 Emulation software                                                                                                                        |
| VT100 Emulation Software                                                                                                                       |
| 5250 Emulation Software                                                                                                                        |
| Ingres SQL Interface                                                                                                                           |
| Informix SQL Interface                                                                                                                         |
| Oracle SQL Interface                                                                                                                           |
| Sybase SQL Interface                                                                                                                           |